The very best I can hope for you, our students, is that you will be able to look back on your years at reunion with fond memories.

These days, loyalty, friendliness, courtesy, responsibility, respect for others, desire to do your best are the qualities we value at M.D. They will help you to achieve your worthy goals. They will make the most of your life hope.

PRINCIPAL

The distribution of this yearbook, the 1955 Monrovia, marks the completion of another constructive and beneficial year. To the graduating seniors we extend our best wishes for their future success, and the assurance that the students who are here next year will exert every effort to maintain their high school at the same high standards for which it is so well known.

Mr. [Name] Principal

Miss [Name] Mary J. Dyer

VICE-PRINCIPAL

As members of the Monrovia-Duarte High School community you have shared a wide range of experiences designed for promoting good citizenship and lifelong benefits. May you carry with you the high regard you have developed for community citizenship as you go on to richer experiences.

Miss F. H. H. and Miss W. H. H. and Mr. H. H. H.

DEANS AND COUNSELORS

Mr. Dean and Miss Dean are the only ones who ask the students to be good and to be happy. They are the only ones who are stepping places for a part of the year. The Miss Dean and Miss Dean are the only ones who are stepping in the place of the Dean and Miss Dean. They are the only ones who are stepping

Our business manager, Mr. H. C. Danforth, has a big job. He must keep the M. D. plant running smoothly purchasing such needed supplies as stoves or sewing machines for the home economics department, paints for the art room, books for geometry, and bats for gym classes.

Mr. Thomas Griffin

At night M. D.'s buildings light up, once more come to life, and Mr. Thomas Griffin and his adult education faculty welcomes adult students, who are preparing for citizenship or just interested in learning something new.

OFFICE PERSONNEL

These smiling secretaries have the right to look proud. As they run their clicking typewriters, buzzing switch boards, and rattling mimeograph machines, they prove that they are an indispensable part of M. D. life.

KITTEN KOOP

Your Kitten Koop is like an oasis to you, the hungry student. Whether it's for ice cream, hamburgers, or turnovers, if your desire is to satisfy the inner man, this is the place for you. Under the supervision of Ma Park, who has presided over this domain for thirteen years, the Kitten Koop means food, gay talk, and occasional friendly guidance from Ma. In the picture with Ma Park are Mesdames Mary Vondrak and Della Stamatis.

Battling against a dishwasher which breaks down frequently, cold water when they want hot, and other almost insurmountable odds, these ladies are still able to provide you with tasty, nourishing food. Although their duties are rather routine, your cafeteria workers are able to combine pleasure with their chores. Whether you want a thick, soul-satisfying malt at the "gopher hole," cookies and milk at snack time, or a full-course plate lunch, you will find your M D cafeteria workers friendly and efficient.

ATTENDANCE OFFICE

Ever absent? Then you'll know about this place. Your attendance office is very important in the business of keeping records at M-D. This is the place where the attendance office staff members listen sympathetically to your excuses for being absent tardy. They strive to levy equal justice with malice toward none and charity for all.

SENIORS . . .

Congratulations, seniors! As freshmen you gazed in awe at the seniors with their class rings, as sophomores you were thinking about becoming upperclassmen and looking forward to your Junior-Senior Prom, and as juniors you were dreaming of becoming Monarchs and Modquins. Now you have scaled the Senior Wall and are ready to go on to new heights of achievement, and as you look back on your senior year with its football games, its Senior Mixer, your last prom and dances, your senior assembly, and your graduation, you may be proud of your senior year.

JUNIORS . . .

Your first prom, class rings, the feeling of superiority at being upperclassmen, and dreams of a great year—all these things have made this a memorable year for you juniors. As next year's seniors, from your class will be chosen your student leaders to carry on your school activities in M.D.'s best tradition for you, your school, and your community.

SOPHOMORES . . .

Looking forward to becoming upperclassmen, feeling superior to the lowly freshmen, dreaming of next year's prom, and thinking about when you too can select your class rings — all this made your sophomore year interesting. Although you seemed to be in the middle over the excitement of being freshmen, but not yet the upperclassmen, you have made this an active and memorable year for your sophomore class.

FRESHMEN...

At last—high school! You felt conspicuous at first in your new green beanies, but when the first excitement died down you began to feel as though you belonged; and with your clubs, your activities, your Memorial Day Assembly, and your presence in general you have contributed to the welfare of yourself, your school, and your community

A.S.B. PREXY

There is great news. Braeger is coming to a new job in the city and is busy with A.S.B. Prexy. You've often seen him in the morning through the hills or sprawled behind a table desk. Since it looks like he's for the year 54-55 we'll see him on the A.S.B. Prexy but the work of the A.S.B. will be working with M.C. (the working party) in the morning, evening or school. The Prexy (the A.S.B. Prexy) appearing in the front of the A.S.B. will be with M.D. who is in the A.S.B. Prexy. (The A.S.B. Prexy) has been in the A.S.B. Prexy for the A.S.B. Prexy.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

The activities of the House of Representatives, led this year by Tom Earle, include making laws for the election code, regulating sports awards, chartering organizations, collecting dues, appropriating money, and providing for the common welfare of the student body.

CABINET

The president's executives are Bob Overbaugh, director of activities; John McNerney, director of athletics; Kenny Johnson and Geoff Sheldon, directors of conduct; Marilyn Jones, director of finance; Terry Harney, director of organizations; and Bart Porter, director of publicity.

LAW AND ORDER

Guilty! With this word come demerits for the hapless student who is the holder of a blue slip issued to him by a commissioner. Lawbreakers are justly tried by your three justices or if the culprits prefer, by a jury of students. The latter's verdict of guilty, however, carries a more severe penalty. At all times proceedings of this court must be dignified and orderly. While the court is trying cases and issuing demerits, it is performing its job as the heart of your law and order.

Tom Kiley, Earl H. Bonnie Covert, John Burt Ross, Shade Judges

COMMISSIONERS

Commissioners work for good citizenship at M-D. Early this year, however, they took time off for play and spent a day in Disneyland.

MAJORETTES

Adding a touch of excitement to the performances of our marching band are the majorettes twirling their batons and performing snappy routines. The majorettes accompany the band at all times and work hard perfecting their many routines for the half time stunts during football season and parades. The majorettes also perform during pep assemblies.

This year Marie Ostergaard and Beverly Gaebel were co-leaders, and the other members were Billye Brooks, Marilyn Jimerson, and Sheila McGehee. Mrs. Betty Thornton helped the girls plan their routines and perfect their timing.

With Bart Porter as its leader, the Entertainment Committee started the year by making posters publicizing the Homecoming. The committee also sold Student Body cards, which are the means of financing school sports, the Wildcat, and the Monrovia. All the members who sold the cards wore colorful tags and made posters advertising the sale.

STUNT COMMISSION

Under the competent direction of Mrs. Thelma Finney and Mr. Max Cramer, the Stunt Commission is responsible for the many spectacular half-time performances you have all enjoyed at M-D's football games. The Commission, which exists only during football season, met every Wednesday and planned the clever stunts that were performed by the Band and Pep Cats.

PEP COMMISSION

The Pep Commission, headed by vivacious Judy Coleman, has had another busy year promoting traditional Wildcat spirit. Every Tuesday night the members attended meetings where they spent tedious hours preparing the stunts for M-D's unique card section. Clever Judy was also responsible for making the gay green and white pompons, which added even more color and spirit to the football games.

Guide right! is the familiar phrase you hear when the Pep Cats are lining up for their half-time performances at M.D's football games. Under the capable sponsorship of Mrs. Thelma Yenney and Mrs. Betty Thornton, the girls have completed a busy year. Marching in the Junior Rose Bowl Parade was one of the many highlights of this year's activities. They also accepted an invitation

MARCHING

Meet your Wildcat band. This striking unit in Green and White has brought enjoyment and thrills to many spectators at M-D's football games, where it staged intricate and spectacular stunts. The precision and stirring tempo of the band is due to the efforts of Mr. Max Cromer, new band director, who has spent many long hours helping the group to perfect its performance. The band's talents were not confined to M-D only, for it won compliments at the Long Beach All-Western Band Revue in November.

and was honored to be one of the two high school groups to play in the Junior Rose Bowl Parade. Participation in the High School Band Day at the University of Southern California-Oregon State football game in October gave all the members a thrill. In the spring your M-D band celebrated the year with a banquet, where well-deserved letters were presented. Congratulations go to Bob Overbaugh, capable drum major of the band, for having guided it through all its activities so successfully.

BOYS' LEAGUE

Well, guys, today we have to decide—. Fellows, we're ready to start our meeting . . . Men, can you hear me?" Have you ever seen your Boys' League Prexy, Jim Story, on bended knee pleading for quiet? The Prexy's cabinet has. And, believe it or not, on the twentieth plea the cabinet has finally become quiet. It has been said that some of our football heroes gossip worse than old ladies. Jim has also been faced with the impossibility of keeping the ushers at their posts. Every time they saw a girl, they were off after her. However, bravely shining through these dark hours, Jim has completed a successful year, which included Freshmen Day, the memorable Christmas Dance, "Winter Wonderland," and the terrific Boys' League assemblies.

MADQUINS

Shes a Madquins is a familiar phrase around your M.D. community. The words recall the spring time when New Madquins members shed tears of happiness for having the honor of wearing the Madquins emblem. This year has been filled with rewarding experiences, one of which was decorating the goal posts before the football games and finding the crepe paper a completely saturated mess upon arriving that night at the game. An other memorable project was ushering for the games and listening to the enthusiastic screams of "Sit down, we can't see!" and so your Madquins would find the only seat left, behind a pole naturally.

MONARCS

Sitting tensely in his seat and awaiting the familiar ring of his own name is all each Monarc can remember of last spring. And since then, all anyone else can recall is the ever-present Monarc jacket being proudly displayed by its owner. Included in the memories of a great year for your Monarcs are such incidents as stretching as far as possible (which wasn't quite far enough) on shaking ladders to connect the decorations with the football goal posts, the memorable Monarc party, and the unforgettable melee during the Monarc-Faculty Basketball game.

JUNIOR STATESMEN

As your representatives to conventions held with many other schools, your Junior Statesmen discuss and debate many current topics and problems of interest. With Mr. Kenneth Scheel and Mr. Robert Oliver as sponsors, your Junior Statesmen are learning the fundamentals of becoming better and more intelligent citizens of their school and community.

Speech Contests

Promoting the annual American Legion Oratorical Contest was the chief activity of the year for the Speech Arts Club. It also sponsored the Lions Club contest and ended the year's activities by awarding the traditional trophy to the outstanding student speaker of the year.

SCHOLARSHIP SOCIETY

Once in the fall and once in the spring, the brains, beauty, and brawn of the Scholarship Society leave the halls of learning and enjoy a movie or trip to the beach.

THE STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council was organized on September 1st, 1911. It is a voluntary organization of students who are interested in the welfare of the school. The council is composed of twelve members, six boys and six girls, who are elected by the student body. The council meets weekly and is presided over by the president, who is elected for a one year term.

LOS BUENOS VECINOS

This year the Spanish Club began its activities with a Christmas dinner at El Poché Restaurant in San Gabriel. At one of the regular meetings the members were given instructions in Spanish dancing by Ramon Peraita, M-D's new student from Madrid, Spain. To climax a promising and enjoyable year, the club traveled to Padua Hills to learn about the customs of our Spanish-speaking neighbors

The Civettes, under the direction of Miss Lois Mayer, have accomplished much this year. Carving pumpkins for Santa Teresita Sanitorium was the first project for the girls. They also served at the Sports Award Dinner, made 1500 cards for Thanksgiving, decorated the Christmas tree in M-D's hall, and stuffed toy animals for Christmas gifts.

The Civitans had another busy year, again proving their worth as a valuable service organization. After many hours of hard work and planning they co-sponsored with the Civettes a winning float in the Homecoming Parade. In March they were again busy, this time sponsoring the P.T.A. dance. Besides all this hard work, the Civitans also found time to relax and enjoy themselves by having several potluck dinners at the homes of the members.

YOUR MUSIC

MONROVIA

You walk into the auditorium, find your seat, and wait for the performance to begin. Then, from near the stage, comes a musical strain, and the twenty-four members of your Monrovia Duarte High School Orchestra provide you with appropriate music for awakening a responsive mood. You are privileged to attend a school with such an orchestra.

Two members of M-D's orchestra, Marilyn Greve and Desiree Mongar, belong to the San Gabriel Valley Symphony Orchestra, and five others, Jean Pelkey, George Grizenko, John Larson, Norman Coupland, and Zoe Olson, are members of the San Gabriel Valley Junior Orchestra. Furthermore, one member, Desiree Mongar, has attained the distinction of being chosen to participate in the state district honor orchestra. This year your school was host for other school orchestras during the State Musical Festival, held at M-D in March.

This has been an active year for your orchestra, which continually progresses in ability from September to June under the able instruction of Mr. Harold Scott.

Your orchestra is truly an asset to you, your school, and your community.

Only after a year, after months, the members of your Concert Band work on their own. Why are they so tired? Well, it's not that easy. They are working hard to learn that song or piece to which they are assigned. A year ago the new band group have easily had the honor to be asked to perform with the marching band. Mr. McDonald directs the junior band.

In the course of a year members of your Concert Band receive instruction in the fundamentals of playing in an instrumental ensemble and become acquainted with a wide range of music literature. ## CONCERT

Under the skilled direction of Mr. Chester Oram, Concert Choir II has brought great enjoyment to the citizens of the community at Rotary Club and Woman's Club meetings and also to many other groups, including the State Superintendents' Convention at Long Beach and assemblies at Whittier and Citrus Junior College and South Pasadena High School. Their singing together with that of Concert Choir I in the Christmas program "Gloria" and the Spring Concert will long be remembered.

CONCERT I

Concert Choir I with its selected membership has won great praise for itself in appearances before the State Superintendents' Convention at Long Beach, at a Ladies' Day meeting of the Los Angeles Kiwanis Club, and at a Spring Festival at Bridge's Auditorium in Claremont, where they joined Concert Choir II in a Spring Festival, "Feature Program for '55."

ADVANCED GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

The Advanced Girls Glee Club members with their lovely voices are trained by Mrs. Hedya Finkenbinder to make each song really live. During the year the girls have sung in Glee at a Parent Teachers Association meeting in February and at the Girls Glee Assembly in May. They were also important contributors to the Spring Concert Program, "Feature Program for $5.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

Under the excellent direction of Mr. Chester Loom, the Boys Glee Club completed another successful year. Included in the group's activities were singing in the Christmas Program, "Gloria," and in the Spring Concert. The boys have worked hard and will receive a deserve reward when they are promoted to members of the Mixed Chorus.

Young April was the opening play this year. Ann Austin played Terry McIntyre in this clever play. Complicating Terry's life were her father, played by Charles Phifer, her mother, Fern Petit, and her brother, Barry Martin. The men in her life were Terry Harney as Bert Parsons, Robert Swartz as Stewart Miller, and Paul Diffley as Brian Stanley. Last year's award winning actress, Frances Petit, appeared in this play as Mrs. Miller, mother of Stewart Miller. Being light comedy, Young April provided an enjoyable evening for a

M.D.'S MUMMERS PRESENT

M.D.'s mummers presented their tournament play, Rachel Field's "Three Pills in a Bottle," at the Pasadena Playhouse on March 22. Fantasy, gaiety and sadness combined to set the mood of the play. Tana, the wistful little girl who from her window greeted busy passersby, was played by Julie Melton. Widow Sims, her mother, was ably portrayed by Frances Petit. Charles Phifer acted the part of a pompous, wealthy gentleman; Bob Swartz was his ragged, care-worn soul. A toiling scissors grinder was portrayed by Paul Diffley; and his dashing, troubadour soul by Barry Martin. A contrast to the bent, kindly scrubwoman, played by Fern Petit was her dancing, star-dust adorned soul played by Ann Austin. Behind the scenes were Miss Amie Gilbert drama director, Donna McFadden and Roxie Hubinger student directors, and many others who worked to make this year's entry a clever production.

LETTERMEN OFFICERS

The Lettermen's Club had an active year as they sponsored Campus Clean up, saw many interesting sport movies, and brought about the introduction of Lettermen jackets. Sponsored by Mr. Verl Murray the boys participated in every phase of Monrovia's sports program.

CIRCLE M

To be eligible for Circle M a girl must have secured 1400 points by participating in sports before and after school. Each year Mrs. Yenney entertains these girls at her cabin in the Valley of Enchantment at Crestline.

BLOCK M

Block M is composed of M.D.'s top athletes—who have earned three hundred points by lettering in different sports. The club president, Don Dettbarn, is one example of the talented athletes in this group. Some of the club's activities included Campus Cleanup and a Faculty-Student Noon Dance, which Block M and Circle M sponsored jointly.

YOUR PAPER...

Editor in Chief Jo Ann Becherer

Adviser Mrs. Thelma Thompson

Have you ever sat in your first period class and tried to read the latest copy of the Wildcat — which is wedged in conspicuously between your knees and the desk while the teacher casually strolls down the aisle toward you? Although this trick is not recommended to the students who want high grades, it is not uncommon to find many a student trying to get away with it in many a Friday morning class. Apparently a perusal of the paper is worth the risk.

Editor-in-chief JoAnn Becherer and her editorial staff of Paul Turvill, Gwen Vaden, Christy Schoelenbach, Bonnie Covert, and Carmen M... worked hard all day on Tuesday morning with wrinkled brows and clicking typewriters, racing to meet the three o'clock deadline and the approval of their very capable adviser, Mrs. Thelma Thompson.

The efforts combined with those of the efficient sports staff of Mike Miller, Woody Austin, Tim Eadie, and Ronny Swape, and the cartoonists of the business staff of Sharon Kolar, Maryann Kovak, Maxine Wendel, Ariene Thompson, Rosemary Leahy, and Donna Metcalf resulted in the regularly scheduled Friday appearance of your prize-winning newspaper.

Have you ever wondered what goes on in THAT room during sixth period? Miss Kathryn Geddes, Monrovia sponsor, can testify that when the Monrovia staff meets, 2) Man bears more than a little resemblance to being an is each staff member goes to work on his pet project. Your 1955 Monrovia shows the results of their activities.

Fred Couchman, photographer, snapped many of the prize pictures for you, including those king size d v s on page pictures. Gayle Dominis skill put your organization section together. Kent Herkenrath edited the sports section extraordinary, assisted by George Winchester, who also had the tough chore of keeping the Bestest results secret. Carolyn Stinson combined her journalistic and diplomatic talents to compile the faculty pages. Diane Lawson, Martina Miller, and Leroy Harkness made up the trio of scissors snippers, Leroy to clip snaps for his pride and joy, the senior pages, Martina and Diane to sever choice items for the "morgue" and pictures for the snap section. You may credit Jan Saxton for many of the Monrovia's original layouts and for special work on the student leaders section. Here and there throughout the book you will find Barbara Rivera's clever touch, especially in the features section and in the art work. Pat Sayor covered such exciting events as G A A Play Day to fill the girls sports section. Howard Kinner fasted both contracts and smiles at Monrovia Arcade and Duarte merchants as he sold space for the advertising section. The hectic work went on—and on—and on, sixth periods, after school hours, weekends, holidays—

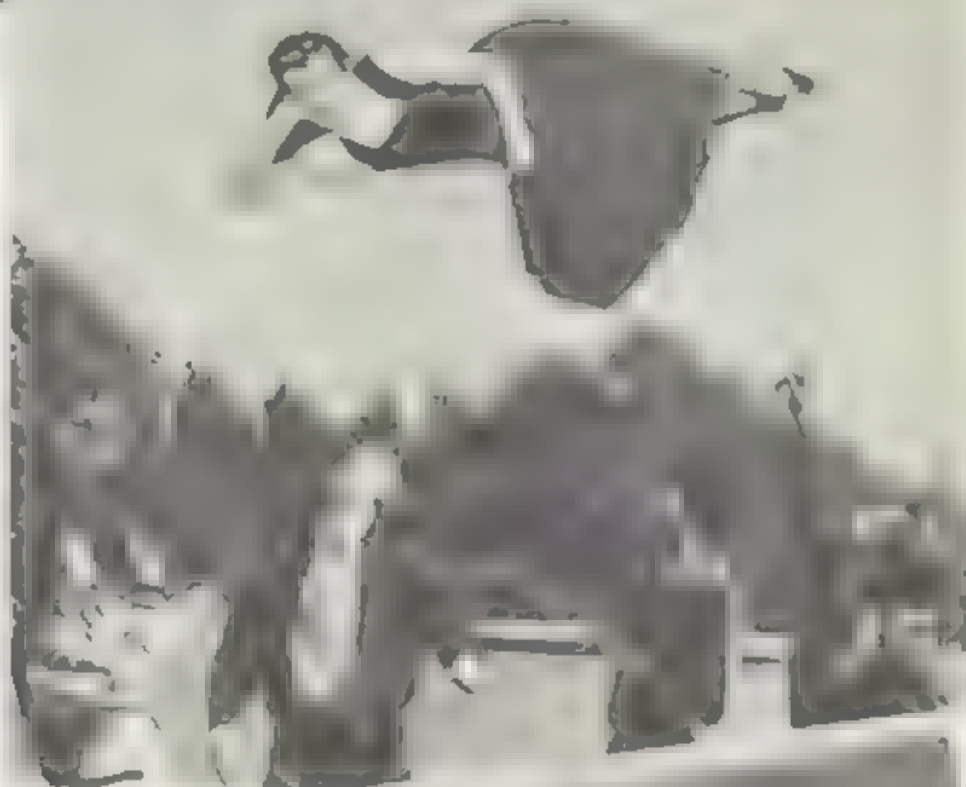

And now it's over.

There aren't any more deadlines to meet, dummies to plan, pictures to take, or advertisements to sell. The tensions, worries, and crises are things of the past. But so are the excitement, the satisfactions, and the glory of creating your 1955 Monrovia.

Your two capable coaches, Mr. John Daniels and Mr. Al Katich, have this to say of the '54 Varsity football team: "These kids played good, hard, clean football. Win or lose, they were members of one of the finest groups of boys we have ever coached. We considered it a privilege to belong to such an outstanding team—one of the gamest ever to represent M-D!"

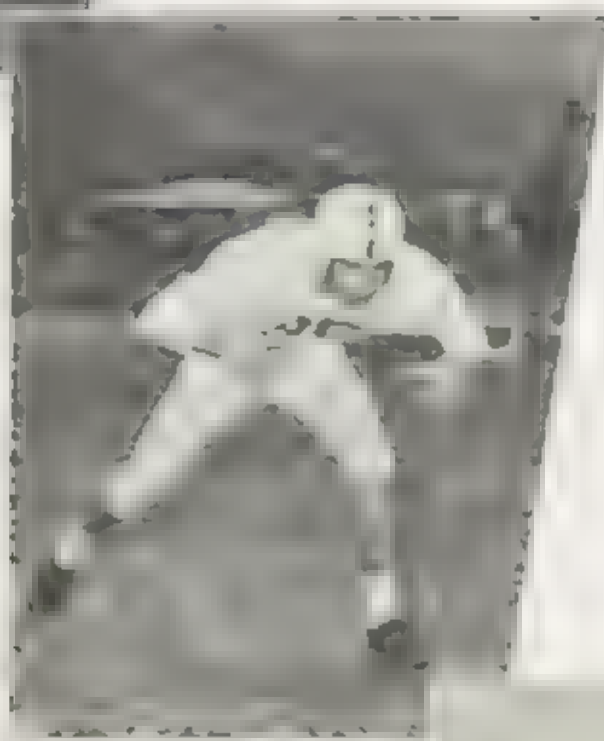

Lack of experience, combined with little depth and even less weight, put two strikes against your Wildcats. Injuries and colds did their best to add the third strike. Still, the team won two games and lost two by one point, two by one touchdown, and three by two touchdowns. It's not whether a team wins or loses that's important, but how the boys play the game. One of the finest jobs of coaching ever seen at M-D was turned in this year by Mr. Keith Broaders, who fashioned a tough squad out of a team that was the pre-season favorite to wind up in the cellar. Come-through performances provided the Monroviaans with an even record of six wins and six losses. With the exception of the CIF champs Alhambra, the 'Cats defeated every team in the league at least once to capture fourth place in loop standings. Included in these victories was the season's biggest upset over second-place Mark Keppel. Few onlookers realize the time, energy, and unyielding stamina involved in forming a successful cross country team. Your Marathoners of '54 trained long and vigorously to attain their high position in Pacific League standings. Track Coach Verl Murray

For three straight years—a total of 24 track meets—your varsity thinclads have remained undefeated in league competition. Few schools in the Southland can beat that record. But it would be even more difficult to match the 'Cats' tremendous reputation. Everywhere the spikesters compete they receive the full respect of their opponents. This admiration is due to the fact that the M-D cinder-men never allow their abilities to outweigh their sportsmanship and spirit. That's the greatest accomplishment of any team. Congratulations to Coaches Verl Murray and "Dink" Walker for instilling the right attitude into their championship squad

Our Bee trackmen, the perennial league threats, are again the team to beat for the league crown. The Kittens have already defeated Rosemead, the favorites to win the championship, in a real thriller. The relay was the decider of the meet, as M-D's Ranney Draper nosed out the Panthers' speedster, Barnett, for the important victory. Other Bee cindermen who have been giving sterling performances are Leon Perry in the hurdles, Lewis Johnston in the broad jump, and George Winchell in the shot put.

UP AND AWAY is Louie Johnston for a leap of 20' 6" against Arcadia.

UNDEFEATED Ranney Draper adds another victory to his sprint triumphs.

Boasting CIF material in several events, this year's Cee trackmen are going to be tough to beat. Ray Reyes has been turning in terrific performances in the CEE 660. Reyes is a solid favorite to place in the CIF finals. James Mikell will be counted on to go all the way in his specialty, the 180-yard dash. Coaches Murray and Walker have been doing a great job in forming these beginners into possible future Olympic stars of 1964.

A hustling group of horsehiders are representing your varsity baseball team this year. At press time, they have lost only one league tilt—and that one loss to a power-laden Whittier nine. We are hoping experience and hard play will find the Katichmen near the top in league standings. Setting the pace for the 'Cat baseballers are Ross Shade, Jimmy Purbaugh, and Dick Jones. Shade leads the team in batting with a .375 average. Purbaugh is hitting .333 at the plate and has saved the day more than once with his fine defense play at second base. Jones, a curve-ball special st, recently tossed a three-hitter to defeat Arcadia, 8-4.

At press time, the divotmen have an even record of three wins and three losses. Though the golf team lacks quantity, they certainly are to be lauded for the quality of work they are doing. Coach Leonard Morris may very well be forming future Ben Hogans from this year's team. Ron Schoenwald, a sophomore, has been consistently shooting in the low 80's.

Coach Max Cramer

M-D's netmen, the defending league champions, have been determined to follow in the footsteps of their predecessors. However, lack of experience has greatly hindered their chances. With only two returning lettermen on the squad, the 55 tennismen have had a hard time finding the winning path. The guidance of Coach Max Cramer and continual hard practice should pay dividends for the team before the season ends.

Faced every day with a horde of screaming female gymnasts literally snatching towels from her grasp, Mrs. Cook, a new addition to the girls' gym department has succeeded in doing a valiant job as secretary to Mrs. Yenney

Perhaps you think of your gym teachers as whistle blowers score keepers, nose counters, or shower checkers. You greet them with groans when they pass by, ringing the infamous "cow bell" to herd you out of the dressing rooms, or marking down your U-cuts and sock checks. You will find them friendly, understanding, and sincerely interested in you and your problems

VOLLEYBALL

If you have a flare for slamming that ball over the net or demonstrating the art of tricky ball handling, then volleyball is your sport. Coming as the first game of the season, it quickly gets those kinks out and also helps any player to lose poundage. It is surely not a game for slow movers.

BASKETBALL

Penalty Free shot Foul These are but a few of the many yells heard on a court of basketball during a class period. To all those who don't like bumps and bruises the answer is Stop. Don't join. Being able to take hard knocks is definitely a qualification necessary for basketball players. Of course, the game goes more smoothly if you can make baskets and do a little guarding.

Speedball

Since girls have always liked boys and football, naturally they had to find a game that somewhat resembles the boys game. Speedball most nearly answers the purpose. Speedball requires talent in three categories: in the feet, in the hands, and in the head. Members of a speedball team are assured of an enjoyable game if they have necessary qualifications, especially the talented feet.

G.A.A. PLAYDAY . . .

Play Day with its nautical theme was THE day for sports-minded M-D girls. Weeks before the big event, G.A.A., Circle M. and gym class members could be seen absorbed in such tasks as snipping strips of crepe paper, designing fish of assorted shapes and sizes, taping pieces of paper together, and artistically draping fish nets to lend that salty atmosphere. The morning of the big day found girls still flying around tacking signs and numbers on game courts, decorating tables, and making further preparations to greet their five hundred guests from Baldwin Park, Whittier and Montebello. The visitors were welcomed aboard the USS Monrovia by Circle M members, dressed as sailors to carry out the nautical theme. The formality of registration was followed by a gay, colorful assembly, which featured two-legged fish modeling the latest in wearing apparel for denizens of the deep Beverly Gaebel, dancing a sailor's hornpipe, and Alma Cureton, portraying Miss Seaweed of 1954.

Competition was keen in the games that followed. The 'Squids

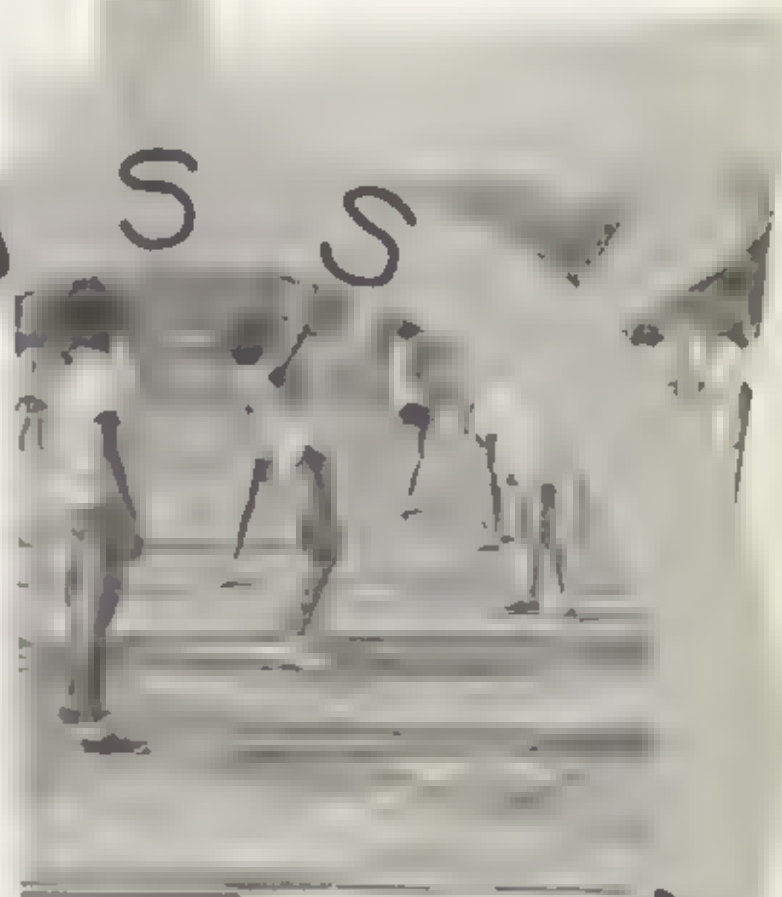

"Shrimps," and other teams played basketball, volleyball, tennis, badminton, and ping-pong. With such activity, no wonder everyone had developed a terrific appetite when refreshment time rolled around! The hungry gymnasts entered the gym to find the walls gaily decorated with comical fish, nets, and multi-colored crepe paper streamers suspended from baskets and balconies. While impatiently waiting for refreshments, the girls gave their school yells and songs, each trying to outdo the other. Since the M-D girls were hostesses, they politely stood aside to let the ravaging hordes decrease the food supply. "No more!" were the words that greeted the hostesses when they finally reached the refreshment table. Despite this disheartening experience, they waved a friendly goodbye to their guests and turned to the task of cleaning up. Thanks to the teachers and students who worked so hard and gave up so much time, Play Day this year was the biggest and best possible.
